This diagram is representational only and depicts a process automation network. The diagram encompasses Ethernet, RS232, RS485 and WiFi connectivity to provide an end to end process automation networking solution.