This diagram is representational only and depicts a typical wind farm network application. The diagram encompasses Ethernet, RS-232, RS-485 and WiFi connectivity to provide an end to end wind energy networking solution.