People often have difficulty choosing the correct gender termination on cable assemblies. Plugs are considered male gendered connectors which utilize a center pin. Jacks are considered female gendered connectors utilizing a center socket.

What is the difference between a plug and a jack?

A PLUG utilizes a center pin = MALE GENDER

A JACK utilizes a center socket = FEMALE GENDER